

II WEBINAR SERIES ON AFRICAN SWINE FEVER

Objective: That veterinarian, related professionals, producers and relevant actors in the pig sector know the emergency actions to be implemented due to outbreaks of African swine fever

Target audience: Open to all sectors (Ministries of Agriculture, Producer Associations, Academy, Research Institutes, Ministries of Health, Ministries of Environment, Agricultural Schools, Associations of Veterinarians and Zootechnicians, Official sector of ports and airports)

Open to the public: It will be broadcast on social networks in English, Spanish, French, Portuguese

SECOND SEMINAR: EMERGENCY ACTIONS IN THE FACE OF THE CONFIRMATION OF AFRICAN SWINE FEVER

March 23, 2022

TIME (CR)	THEME	FACILITATOR(S)
09:30 – 09:45	Welcome and opening remarks	Dr. Ana M. Cordero (IICA) Dr. Catya Martínez Rivas (OIE) Dr. Andrés González (FAO)
09:45 – 10:00	Finding a suspicion of ASF: (clinical signs, early detection; epidemiological vigilancia - at the farm level-: pasive & active; epidemiological investigation: prospective and retrospective tracing)	Dr. Daniel Beltrán Alcrudo (FAO)
10:45 – 11:00	Sampling and sending of samples. Requirements for Laboratory Diagnosis of ASF	Dr. Raquel Nieto (INIA, Spain)
11:00 – 11:15	The diagnosis of ASF: a fundamental tool in the control of the disease.	Dr. Carmina Gallardo (INIA, Spain)

TIME (CR)	THEME	FACILITATOR(S)
11:15 – 11:30	Actions to be implemented upon confirmation of an outbreak of ASF (precautionary vs definitive quarantine; restriction of movement of animals and products; sanitary slaughter; sanitary eflight; lavado, cleaning and disinfection)	Dr. Marius Masiulis (State Food and Veterinary Service of Lithuania)
11:30 – 11:45	Eradication of ASF in Cuba, 1971 and 1980. Recommendations for the management of health emergencies	Dr. María Irian Percedo (CENSA, Cuba)
11:45 – 12:15	Questions and Answers	Panelists and exhibitors
12:15 – 12:30	Conclusions	Dr. Ericka Calderón (IICA)